

Additional criteria for candidates applying to the Doctoral School in the Humanities, interdisciplinary and cross-domain PhD programme within the Flagship Project “European Heritage in the Jagiellonian Library: Digital Authoring of the Berlin Collections” (under the Strategic Programme Excellence Initiative at Jagiellonian University)

Prerequisites:

- the topic of the doctoral thesis should be related to the topic of the flagship project “European Heritage in the Jagiellonian Library: Digital Authoring of the Berlin Collections”, delivered under the Strategic Programme Excellence Initiative at the Jagiellonian University (keywords: European Heritage, Autographs, Digitization, Berlin Collections, Jagiellonian Library)
- an already completed (or in the process of completing) an MA degree in the humanities
- knowledge of German and English.

Desirable:

- knowledge of other languages
- evidence of scholarly activity (conferences, publications, etc.)
- mobility experience at foreign universities, e.g. DAAD, NAWA, ERASMUS scholarships, etc.
- experience in working with manuscripts and/or preliminary knowledge of manuscript culture, particularly of the 18th and 19th centuries, gained e.g. through university classes, translation work, research grants, etc.

Description of tasks to be undertaken in the course of the doctoral project:

- preparation of the doctoral thesis on the basis of the materials developed in the flagship project
- working with German-language manuscripts, cooperation in compiling the catalogue
- cooperation in the preparation and dissemination of research results, as well as publication and participation in academic life
- organisational tasks (e.g. cooperation in the organisation of conferences, workshops, meetings, exhibitions).